"First

Impressions "

First impressions of Holmes are really, to a large extent, lasting ones. Laughing and carefree students, full of anticipation and hope (hope for A's), and friendly faculty and staff who are more than employees; they're friends.

Below: "Lean on me, Baby"

Scavenger hunt winners Lisa, Marty, Angie, and Lisa Alexander strike an unusual pose.

Opposite page, Lower right: "Where's Wade, There he is!" says Brad Robertson.

"Smiles and Faces"

One of the most prevalent memories students have about Holmes is that of close friendships. As evidenced by the smiles on these faces, this year was no exception.

the Holmes fire burning . . .

Students at Holmes Junior College found many inventive ways to keep life burning this year. Bonfires on the Ridgeland and Goodman Campuses warmed the hearts of pep rally participants. Trivial pursuit and a cheerleader sponsored kissing contest kept minds busy during times away from study. Miss Bully and Bully were ever present beings throughout the year. Whether it was being there or taking part in the fun, "Holme Fires" burned during the year.

Julia Williams and Billy Joyce Pool entertained the crowd at one of the pep rallies!

"Holme Fires"

Fright Night

The Lorraine Student Center came alive during the Halloween Carnival sponsored by the cosmetology club. "The Can" crawled with merry little goblins as they tried their hand at an egg throw or hook the bottle fishing. Some preferred to walk through the spook infested Holme Towne Player haunted house while others tried to win a cake during the Phi Beta Lamda cake walk. Whether you wound up with egg on your face, a cake in your hand or you hair raised from the haunted house, it was "Fright Night" at Holme.

Wayne Campbell puts on the Holme Towne version of "A Chainsaw Massacre."

Angie Lewis contemplates taking the next letter during the cake walk.

The cast from the haunted house strike a ghoulish pose for the cameras.

Homecoming, 1988

*1988 Homecoming Queen and her escorts
Escort Robert Toombs, Queen Laura Kay Hill, Escort Jeff Pearce*

The choir, in keeping with tradition, began the evening's activities by singing the alma mater from the track. The band followed with the Star-Spangled Banner and we were all set to see our bulldogs run those Delta Trojans all over the field and the Dogs did not let us down. A football game victory and a homecoming court of beautiful women and handsome men all together brought to our minds the thought "There really is no place like Holmes for a beautiful homecoming."

*Most Beautiful
Tiffany Barlow*

The Horizons' Beauty Review brought Holmes Junior Colleges' finest to the stage of Frank B. Branch Coliseum on the Goodman Campus. Participants came from all campus and center locations. They were judged in interview, casual wear, and formal wear, a job not envied by many. While the judges collaborated and the girls changed, the audience enjoyed entertainment by Mrs. Janet Simpson, music instructor at Holmes, Mrs. Jama Chesten, Data Processing instructor at Holmes, the Coachmen, and "Dummy & Co." featuring Lesha Campbell — Ventriloquist. When all things were said and done and the evening came to an end Tiffany Barlow took the highly sought after title of "Most Beautiful."

Upper right: Tiffany Barlow and Tammy Henson smile for the photographer as they get in numerical order for casual wear competition.

Lower right: Tammy McChristion and Tracey Washington, not a nervous bone in their body.

Horizon's Dedication

The 1989 Holmes Junior College "Horizons" is dedicated to a very special man, M. R. Thorne.

President Thorne has served as president of Holmes Junior College for thirteen years. He has increased enrollment by 75% in the last five years. That feat was primarily accomplished through the building of the Ridgeland Campus and the Grenada Center. He has also made improvements on the home campus located in Goodman.

President Thorne has earned the respect and admiration of the highest order for his many accomplishments. He shall be missed upon his retirement to Kosciusko, Mississippi.

Without equivocation, the Horizons staff selected Murray Reid Thorne, an individual who has given unselfishly to this college and district for 30 years, the final 13 as president, to receive the dedication of this the 60th Volume of the Holmes Junior College District Yearbook.

"Anyone for an egg? or two?"

HOLMES JR COLLEGE TRUCK DRIVING SCHOOL

BY ROH

For the second year now, Holmes Junior College is offering a truck driving course. The instructors of this Goodman Campus course are Donald Tucker and Tommy Oakes. In an exclusive interview with Mr. Tucker, our Horizons reporter was able to discover a new outlook on the trucking career and the vast job opportunities it can provide. Because his father was a truck driver Mr. Tucker grew up in trucking and he pursued a career in trucking all of his life. He has been sharing his vast knowledge of trucking on the Holmes staff since the program began. Last year, the first year of the program, the course was located in Durant, although it was a Holmes Junior College course. This year, however, the course has been moved onto the Goodman Campus directly behind the Attala Dormitory.

The participation rate in the program has been approximately seven persons per eight week course. Although this may not seem like a large number, it must be taken into consideration that only fifteen people can be enrolled in each class. Two requirements for the course are, a minimum age of 21 years and a maximum of three traffic tickets within the last five years, none of which can be a DUI. The course involves teaching young drivers the essentials for safety such as all phases of backing, shifting, road position, hauling hazardous materials, and night driving. The Holmes staff even takes the time to teach extras that really make a difference such as professionalism and etiquette.

Although trucking in the past has been associated with low pay and few benefits, Mr. Tucker informed this Horizon staffer that this reputation is rapidly changing. Presently, truck drivers are earning anywhere from five to seven hundred dollars per week. A person in the trucking profession also has the advantage of touring the country while earning a living. A trucker usually drives for two weeks and then returns home for one week to do as he or she pleases. Another advantage of this profession is that the driver may take his spouse as his back-up partner, if his spouse is trained in truck driving. With all of these personal benefits available, it is no wonder why diesel driving is becoming such a rapidly growing profession.

De Chiaro, a tradition at Holme

Who is he? Where is he from? What does he do? He is Giovanni De Chiaro, a mild mannered humble man of short stature. De Chiaro is a music professor at the University of Southern Mississippi. What he does best is play guitar, classical guitar.

De Chiaro has been performing at Holmes for the past 5 fall semesters. He's becoming a tradition! He has transcribed and recorded eight well-known orchestral works on guitar. These he released in the form of a CD entitled "Orchestral Masterpieces on Guitar" on the Harmonia Mundi, USA label. The response by Holmes' students has been one of awe.

Pictured on this and the next page are snapshots of De Chiaro during his most recent performance at Holmes. Snapshots in no way are able to convey the message in music that this musician emotes.

Below: Sherry Burchfield and Mrs. Simpson talk with De Chiaro about his performance.

Upper left: Mrs. Irby calls for participants in the Phi Beta Lambda sponsored cake walk to get on their numbers, the music is about to begin. The cake walk was among several booths sponsored by different clubs and organizations at the Halloween Carnival.

"CAUTION! Children at Work!"

The HJC Childcare Center houses an excellent childcare program for children and educational program for students interested in child development. The program was started 11 years ago by Kay Keeton, who was also the very first instructor. The first year the program was started, the eleven children and instructor met in the coliseum. The program has come a long way since 1976. Today the center has its own private building along with four full-time employees.

Holmes Junior College chooses their teachers and instructors for the childcare center carefully. Teachers are required to have a four year degree, a two year degree from HJC childcare program, or experience in day care. HJC has two college instructors and two teachers for the children.

Lou L. Ferguson is a college instructor and is the HJC Daycare Director. Mrs. Ferguson has such duties as planning the curriculum for the students, enrolling students, and ordering supplies for the program. She also cooks dinner for the children. She has her Master's Degree in Education with emphasis in Early Childhood. Betty Floyd is in charge of the food program. She plans menus and orders food. Mrs. Floyd is also a college instructor. Fay Bishop instructs and supervises children ages three to five. Charlotte Bishop supervises infants as young as six weeks old. The educational program offered to the students is a program in childcare and development technology. The program is a two-year technical program which, upon completion the student receives an AA Degree in child development.

Freshmen entering the child development program have regular classes at the childcare building along with a four hour lab once a week first semester in which they get a chance to work with the children. Second semester the students have a four-hour lab, once a week. At mid-term the freshmen have one activity to do with the children such as leading the three to five-year olds in games or storytime. The purpose of this is so the students can get familiar with the children. The sophomores involved in the childcare program also have regular classes at the childcare building along with a six hour lab once a week first semester and second semester.

HEADWAE Honoree

Luther Boggan, District Department Chairman of math for Holmes Junior College, was chosen to be honored by the HEADWAE program. One teacher from Junior College is selected and recognized at a banquet by the Mississippi Senate. This award is given on the basis of the recipient's ability to teach.

Boggan shared with us what he considers to be the secret of his success. He says, "Once you become a teacher, you should be willing to sacrifice your time, energy, and talents to help students. enjoy teaching math to students and working with other fine teachers." He also feels that, "It is nice to receive a reward for simply doing my job. There are many other faculty members that deserve rewards."

Out of State

Left to right: Tina Womak, Andrea Coleman, and Annette Holley.

Some of Holmes Junior College's best athletes and students are a long way from home! That's because they came to Holmes from other states. They have contributed greatly to our sports programs. Many of these athletes must stay on campus for weeks at a time without going home. These guys and girls could have gone somewhere closer to home, but they didn't; they decided to make Holmes their home for a few months. We on the Horizons staff would like to make a special salute to those special students for their contributions, and to say thanks for wanting to be a part of such great Mississippi teams.

“There’s something different . . .”

The 1988-89 Cheerleading Squad this year took on quite a different look from previous years. The new look came in the form of GUYS! At tryouts last June, we had four young men to try out for cheerleader: Jimmy Druey, Sean King, Chad Self, and Robert Toombs. Along with these men, eight young women were selected. Sophomores selected were Tess McClellan, Angie Johnson, Lisa Alexander and Amy Hammond; and freshmen selected were Rhonda Chandler, Julie Brown, Charlene Shaw and Amy Word. They worked hard during the summer learning cheers, chants, pyramids, jumps and stunts.

Robert, caught in action, doing his part of the dance to “Do You Love Me?”

“First, we talked it through . . .”

“ . . . then, we tried it!”

As school began in the fall there came, not the normal 10 game football season, but 13 pep rallies and 13 football games as the cheerleaders cheered the Bulldogs "All the way to State!" And even out of state to the Shrine Bowl in Tyler, Texas.

At right: Bully was called on to perform even more duties as he carried the Holmes Junior College banner for the band in all of the Christmas Parades.

Middle Left: Pep rallies were held in many different locations but Coach Coates, it looks like yours coaches remarks are coming from the moon! We all know, however, that it was at one of the bonfires.

Middle right: Tess and Jimmy D. get ready to light the bonfire, hoping to light a fire under the Bulldogs and get them "fired up" for Saturday nights game.

On to Basketball

As our basketball starters are introduced, the team and cheerleaders cheer them on.

Another new look! Bully received a new look second semester. The old suite was retired and now — Bully, you're "looking good!"

Like father, like son!

The Bulldogs started the season off with a scrimmage game.

Intense!

That's the one word that would best describe the football season Holmes had this year. Many times the DAWGS came from behind to pull off a win. The team finished out the year with 10 wins and 3 losses. Being first in the North Division, they were chosen to represent Mississippi in the Texas Junior College Shrine Bowl in Tyler, Texas. Coach Pool and the guys worked extremely hard from the word go. They were the first ones back to school in the summer and they worked hard throughout the fall. Their hard work surely paid off because they had fun and played some awesome football!

Game

Cheerleaders do more than cheer at ball games. This year they participated in several parades. In the Grenada Holiday Parade, they rode in President Thorne's pride and joy, his blue truck.
Below right: Angie, Amy H., Chad and Amy on the "early morning bus trip to Tyler, Texas."

Bottom right: Jimmy D., Amy W. Charlene, Lisa, and Robert call for the offense to "hustle" at the Shrine Bowl game.

"Wait a minute! This is not the way it was supposed to look!"

Left: The cheerleaders yelled "Block that kick" to no avail. Trinity Valley Community College made the field goal anyway.

Below: "And after it's all over, away we go!"

Karla Barrentino, Jimmy Druey, Shan Martin, Karla Wooten, and B. R. Permenter chow down on the spaghetti and meatballs.

Anjanette Stiff and Fannie King jam to the music!

Darbie Pope, Emmy Brantley, Honey Jones and Alf!

Don't these two look like they're up to something?

"Football is our life, we love football!"

"Nobody's home, go away!"

"I think the magic words are 'Ditty Patt'."

"Hello Mom, I am missing home already!"

"We got some dogs up in here!"

Sonya Armstrong stops in for a chat with Mr. Sheppard.

Taking tests is a big part of student life. Sometimes a good part, sometimes not so good!

Graduation, 1988

Graduation! The accomplishment of a goal set for some a year ago, some two years ago, and some even longer ago. Now a new goal takes form. For some, one to a university to complete requirements for a bachelor's degree. For others, they are ready to enter the job market. Wherever they go and whatever they do, the memories of Holmes Junior College will remain a part of all these levels. The friends made, the relationships shared, the lessons learned, the experience gained, and the knowledge acquired, all combine to make the memories of HJC, whether happy or sad.

Right: President M. R. Thorne awards Jimmy Ferguson the Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McDaniel Scholarship. This award in the amount of $400.00 is presented annually to a graduating student who plans to further his/her education, and who has made an outstanding contribution to the life and activity of Holmes Junior College during his/her two years at the institution. The scholarship was established at Holmes Junior College by the McDaniel family in honor of their father and mother. Mr. McDaniel was President of Holmes from 1928 until 1940.

Mandy Baham

Editor,

When Mrs. Sheppard asked me to be editor for the second semester, I was very reluctant. I agreed, however, against my better judgment because I felt it might be a good learning experience. It has been an experience, all right! I have learned to deal with total chaos, and to organize everything else. I have also had the chance to work with a lot of people around campus and I have enjoyed every second of it.

I would like to thank my staff for their hard work, Kathy Cotton for being editor first semester, Jim Williams for his help with the pictures, and especially Gale Sheppard for all of the patience and understanding she has shown me and the staff. My sincerest thanks go out to the many teachers and coaches who let me interrupt their classes, practices, or office duties because I needed help or pictures.

I have worked hard to bring you a yearbook worthy of reminding you what a great year this has been. This will be the last Horizons of Holmes Junior College, the Horizons plans to stay up with the times, also. Editing the yearbook from start to finish next year will be a challenge for me. But, with all of the support and help every one at Holmes is famous for, I should survive with my sanity intact, because the atmosphere won't change just because the name changes.
